Re: Guango F. Correa
SBI #180807

Dear Judge Trader:

The Department of Correction opposes the name change requested by Petitioner Guango F. Correa. He is a sentenced prisoner, currently subject to the Department's supervision and reference by his committed legal name. Title 10 Del. Code §5901 abrogates Mr. Correa's common-law right to change his name. Moreover, to grant the name change would adversely interfere with the Department's ability to maintain its institutional files and would be detrimental to the public's best interests.

Mr. Correa currently has used 11 alias names, as documented on his criminal history and court documents, therefore allowing him to adopt another name would cause more confusion with the Department of Correction's records maintenance of its institutional files. In addition, Mr. Correa has not demonstrated that his petition for a name change is motivated by a sincerely held religious belief, but instead, is prompted by a wish to circumvent law enforcement.
